

SETREC Industry Workshop, 'Effects of TRECS' , Barcelona November 3rd, 2004
(Part of the EMART conference)

08.30-08.40	Opening/introduction	Hans Schneider, Coordinator European Commission Project: SETREC GO, CEA International, The Netherlands (confirmed)
08.40-09.00	Bridging the gap - trading green certificates to benefit trade and policy goals	Alex Beckitt Renewable Energy Unit, International Energy Agency, France
09.00-09.25	Current status across Europe on the effects of operating TREC systems and the issues involved, after two years of operation	Verity Ducos, SETREC Co-ordinator, CEA International, (confirmed) and (confirmed)
9.25-9.45	Cost effectiveness of TREC systems	Mario Ragwitz, ISI Fraunhofer, Germany (confirmed)
09.45-10.05	Triggering investments, the experiences in Sweden after the first year of evaluation	Thomas Sundqvist, Economist, Swedish Energy Agency, Sweden (confirmed)
10.05-10.20	Coffee break – initial stickering response of issues by participants (on way out door)
10.20-10.30	First reading of sticker results	Morning Moderator
10.30-10.50	Effects of TRECS from an operational viewpoint	Stefano Alaimo, Director, GRN, Italy (in principle confirmed)
10.55-11.10	TREC System design components for success, experiences from trading in the UK system	Fiona Santokie, Renewables Broker / Analyst, Natsource, UK (confirmed)
11.10-11.30	Guarantees of Origin: implementation, interaction and utilisation	Christiaan Vrolijk, RE-GO co-ordinator , IT Power, UK,
11.30-11.45	Discussion session	All speakers above
11.45-13.00	Official EMART Opening
13.00-14.30	Lunch - second round of stickering related to targets (on way out door)
14.30-15.00	Introduction of European Standard (EECS) for national Guarantees of Origin	Phil Moody, SG, Association Issuing Bodies (confirmed)
15.00-15.30	Action plan towards pan-European RES-Market / Introduction pan-European standard for GoO	Peter Niermeijer, SG RECS International, The Netherlands (confirmed)
15.30-16.00	Coffee break
16.00-17.00	Think Tank Discussion - results of 2 nd sticker round, list of effects and reaction to the results, how to build the TREC framework	Afternoon Moderator: Claes Hedenstrom, Chairman, RECS International (confirmed) Panelists: Phil Moody, Hans Schneider, Peter Niermeijer